Helpful Info

- A student must complete a new FAFSA every October for the following academic year which begins July 1st. Depending on the time you plan on starting school, you may have to complete more than one FAFSA application.
- It is important to complete the FAFSA and submit all other required documentation to complete your financial aid file as early in the year as you can. Certain types of grant funds that schools receive are limited. Log in to the Financial Aid Portal to see what additional documents are required. www.cptc.edu/financial-aid/portal
- The Department of Education does not determine a student's full eligibility for financial aid funds. The FAFSA information is only one piece of determining your financial aid eligibility. The Financial Aid Office uses information from the FAFSA, documentation you submit, admissions information, educational transcript information, and various federal and state databases to determine aid eligibility at Clover Park Technical College.
- Once the Financial Aid Office starts reviewing all of the information you have submitted, there is a chance that you may need to clarify information and submit more documentation. During peak processing times, it could take up to three months to review your file. By meeting the posted quarterly deadline dates, it's our commitment to our students that files will be reviewed by the time the quarter starts.
