President’s Report (Attachment 1)
Student Success Speaker
Sam Hardy, ASG President, is now a Certified Pharmacy Technician. Before coming to CPTC, she took culinary and psychology classes at other colleges. Since she was young, Sam thought about a career in pharmacy. She chose CPTC when visiting various school websites, because CPTC had a shorter program and she could obtain an associate degree along with a certificate. Ms. Hardy attributes her success to faculty, advisors, and staff at CPTC. Her next step is to take Biochemistry at WSU, as she wants to be a pharmacy scientist to make healthier and less expensive medicine.

President Loveday’s report also included these topics: Legislative Update, Student and Staff Awards, Ability to Benefit Waiver for First 6 Credits, Graduation Ceremony, Extension of 2018-19 Operating Budget, and ctcLink. Details are listed in Attachment 1.

College Reports or Highlights

ASG Report (Tab 2)

Ms. Hardy gave the attached report. Chair Withrow recognized Ms. Hardy for her role in keeping the College community, students, and Board of Trustees apprised of student-funded programs, initiatives, and ASG business. Chair Withrow then presented Ms. Hardy with a small token of appreciation from the Board and wished her well in the future.

ASG S&A Budget Overview for 2019-20 (Tab 3)

Mr. Erwin-Svoboda presented the attached, proposed ASG S&A Budget. Questions followed. Trustee Lachney thinks subsidizing childcare costs for those who qualify is an exceptional use of funds to help break down barriers for students. Does that decrease the operating budget deficit for the Hayes Center? Mr. Clark said the deficit is running around $100,000.

Overview/Update on Institutional Research (IR) Office (Tab 4)

Ms. Dana gave an overview/update on Institutional Research. Questions and discussion followed.

- Trustee Taylor said sometimes the data is more quantitative versus qualitative. How will you measure the emotional quotient (EQ)? How are students feeling about being able to succeed at CPTC? How will you measure that data? Ms. Dana replied that is one of the reasons the National Acceptance of Student Experience (NASE) was used; it is a quick snapshot of how students are doing and what CPTC can do better. There are also focus groups working on the data. Trustee Taylor would like to see the information via a dashboard, broken down by ethnic groups.

- Trustee Lachney asked after the dashboard data collection aggregation is parsed out, how will it be embedded into decision making? Decision making works well when you have all the information. This is part of the toolbox. President Loveday responded that discussions are occurring about what to regularly monitor, assess, and measure. Ms. Dana’s office is creating a scorecard that will be used to track the trends.

- Once the College has aggregated that data and done some type of decision making, he suggested that future boards understand the methodology used and that it creates some validity to the numbers.

- In regards to the dashboards, how does it fit with the commonality of SBCTC and other colleges? Are they going to be using the same type of dashboards, and will colleges be able to communicate via ctcLink? Ms. Dana said the majority of community and technical colleges (CTCs) use Tableau. The SBCTC also allows colleges to house information on its server, and CPTC would have the ability to pull up the SBCTC dashboards to check for differences between their CPTC numbers and CPTC’s numbers.
Trustee Lachney suggested a publication of the lexicon that CPTC is using, as there is value in understanding the vocabulary.

Chair’s Report
No Chair’s Report.

Board Reports and/or Remarks
Trustee Martinez reported that he attended the 2019 Washington State Association of College Trustees (ACT) Spring Conference in Walla Walla. The conference had informative sessions and the hosts were gracious. He attended a tour of their winery – the students plant the grapes, harvest them, and then produce wine. Kristy Snow, SBCTC, gave a ctcLink Update, and Trustee Martinez is now hopeful about the project.

Trustee Martinez thanked everyone who wrote or visited legislators this session, as higher education fared well with this budget. It was a team effort with a unified message from the CTCs.

Public Comments
No public comments.

REFERENCE: Proposed WAC revisions

Pursuant to RCW 34.05.325, notices published in the Washington State Register 19-08-055 and 19-11-077, and separate notice via college email, I received comments and presided over public hearings regarding revisions to the college’s current WAC Chapters 495C-140, 141 and 276.

The public hearings were held on May 13th and 14th, 2019 at the Main Campus and South Hill Campus respectively. I was the only party in attendance and thus no comments were made.

Only one comment was received via email. The individual pointed to an error of duplication in 495C-141 which has been corrected and updated with the publishing of the CR102. There are no other recommended changes under this process.

(2) The administrator in charge shall make the decision to close down an event or activity that she or he deems to be in violation of these rules.

(3) Noncollege groups who violate these regulations will be advised of the specific nature of the violation, and if they persist in the violation, will be requested by the administrator in charge to leave the college property. Such a request will be deemed to withdraw the license or privilege to enter onto or remain upon any portion of the college facilities of the person or group of persons requested to leave, and subject such individuals to arrest under the trespass provisions of chapter 9A.52 RCW or municipal ordinance. If an event is canceled due to such violations, the organization is responsible for all college costs and expenses in preparing the facility for its use, as well as subsequent costs and expenses for cleanup and repair of college facilities.

(4) Members of the college community (students, faculty, and staff) who do not comply with these regulations will be reported to the appropriate college office or agency for action in accordance with established college policies.

Such restriction shall be part of any no trespass or disciplinary proceeding as a result of such violation.

(8) The college reserves the right to request the assistance of appropriate law enforcement agencies in situations involving criminal actions in violation of this chapter.

(9) The college reserves the right to seek civil remedy for violations of this chapter.
WAC 495C-276-080 Requests for public records. In accordance with the requirements of RCW 42.17.290 that agencies prevent unreasonable invasions of privacy, protect public records from damage or disorganization, and prevent excessive interference with essential functions of the agency, public records are only obtainable by members of the public when those members of the public comply with the following procedures:

(1) A request shall be made in writing on the district's request form found on the public records page of the college's web site or by letter, fax, or email addressed to the public records officer or, if the public records officer is not available, to any member of the district's staff at the district administrative office during customary office hours) designee. The request shall include the following information:
   (a) The name of the requestor;
   (b) The address of the requestor and/or other contact information such as telephone number and email address;

WAC 495C-276-090 Copying. (1) No fee shall be charged for the inspection of public records. (The district may impose a reasonable charge for providing copies of public records and for the use by any person of agency equipment to copy public records and such charges shall not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the district for its actual costs incident to such copying. No person shall be released a record so copied until and unless the person requesting the copied record has tendered payment for such copying to the appropriate district official. All charges must be paid by money order, cashier's check, or cash in advance.)

(2) The following copy fees and payment procedures apply to requests to the district under chapter 42.56 RCW and received on or after July 31, 2017.

(3) Pursuant to RCW 42.56.120 (2)(b), the district is not calculating all actual costs for copying records because to do so would be unduly burdensome for the following reasons:
   (a) The district does not have the resources to conduct a study to determine all its actual copying costs;
(b) To conduct such a study would interfere with other essential agency functions; and

(c) Through the 2017 legislative process, the public and requestors have commented on and been informed of authorized fees and costs, including for electronic records, provided in RCW 42.56.120 (2)(b), (c), (3) and (4).

(4) The district will charge for copies of records pursuant to the default fees in RCW 42.56.120 (2)(b) and (c). The district will charge for customized services pursuant to RCW 42.56.120(3). Under RCW 42.56.130, the district may charge other copy fees authorized by statutes outside of chapter 42.56 RCW.
